

St John Fisher RC Primary School

Year One Knowledge Organiser – Summer Term One - English Reading and Writing

What we will be learning		Class Text and Author	Key Knowledge
I know how to: Week 1 &amp; 2 - Character Description-label the picture            Sentences dictated by the teacher:            Listen, say, write, edit            Mr Grinling has a blue coat and black boots.            (use 'and' to join words)            Stem Sentences            He has a ... and he has a ...            His hat is ... and ...            Independent Sentences Sentences dictated by the teacher:            Listen, say, write, edit            His feathers are white and soft.            (use 'and' to join words)            Stem Sentences            His wings are ... and ...            He is ... and ...            Independent Sentences Setting Description-label the picture  Sentences dictated by the teacher:            Listen, say, write, edit            The lighthouse is...            (use 'and' to join words)  Stem Sentences            The beach is...            The seaside is...  Independent Sentences	Things I will remember <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• I know that sentences start with a capital letter and end with a full stop</li> <li>• I know that the story has a start, a middle and an end</li> <li>• I can retell the story, The Lighthouse Keeper's Lunch.</li> <li>• I know that Ronda Armitage is an author.</li> </ul> Vocabulary  Lighthouse - a tower containing a beacon light to warn or guide ships at sea.  Perched- rest on something.  Industrious – hard working.  Concocting – making.  Delicious – highly pleasant to the taste.  Seagull - A popular name for a gull.  Scavenging- search for and collect anything usable from discarded waste.  Devoured – eat hungrily or quickly.  Gusto - enjoyment and enthusiasm in doing something.  Brazen - bold and without shame.  Ingenious - clever, original and inventive.    	Reading  Focus Author: Ronda and David Armitage  Book: 'The Lighthouse Keeper's Lunch'     Linking stories to own experiences            Have you read this book before?            What do you think this story will be about?            What clues are there in the picture?            What is a lighthouse? Understanding stories by drawing on what is already known or on background information and vocabulary provided by the teacher. Discussing the significance of the title and events. Retrieval Examples            What was the lighthouse keeper called?            Where did Mr Grinling live? Inference Examples            How did Mr Grinling feel about the pesky seagulls?            What might Mr and Mrs Grinling do next?	I know how to retell and write some sentences about the story, characters and setting in the book that we are reading in class and can share the story with my peers. Linking stories to own experiences            Have you read this book before?            What do you think this story will be about?            What clues are there in the picture?            What does the word 'lighthouse' mean?