Story Sequence

Tom reads the newspaper and finds out that his dad, an explorer, is missing.

Tom prepares for the trip, packing all the things that he will need.

Tom sails across the ocean.

Unfortunately, the boat runs aground. Tom takes off in a hot air balloon. He is amazed to see the spectacular northern lights.

The balloon pops and Tom parachutes down. Tom takes shelter in an igloo that he has built himself and eats fish that he catches.

Tom uses his binoculars and a torch to search all day for his dad.

Finally, he finds him. Tom sets off a flare and the pair are rescued and taken home in a helicopter.
