Key Knowledge:

When we say and write colours as adjectives after the noun in French, the spelling changes to match the noun whether it is singular or plural, masculine or feminine.

Some colours like orange and marron (brown) never change. They stay the same for both masculine and feminine, singular and plural.

French fashion is famous! The city of Paris is often called the "fashion capital of the world" (la capitale de la mode).
