Year Reception RE Knowledge Organiser – Spring Term One - Galilee to Jerusalem

Lesson Seven and Eight

Know that Jesus takes care of everyone.
We welcome and show love to everyone in our words and actions as Jesus does.
We are called to help the poor and hungry.

Learn how a charity called Mary's Meals shows love by helping children across the world by feeding them.

How we can help people beyond the classroom environment.
Make a 'helping hand' promise.
Explore different ways of filling a cup with love.

Talk about following Jesus' example by showing love to everyone.

Lesson Nine and Ten

Know that the word 'glory' means and how it can be used to celebrate good things from God.

Children practice using the word glory via sentence strips.
Put the 'Glory be' prayer in order and explore its meaning.

Talk about the meaning of 'glory'.

Charity Jerusalem, Jericho, Samaritan

Know that we welcome and show love to everyone in our words and actions as Jesus does.
Introduce a story Jesus told, the Good Samaritan, and situate its location on the map.

Using artwork as a stimulus, discuss children's ideas about the message the artist is sharing.

Re-tell the story and talk about the message

Glory, Father, Son, Holy Spirit

Know that Jesus was born for everyone and Jesus is God's Son and came for everyone.
Show love to everyone like Jesus.
Recap all the stories covered in this branch and what they teach us about Jesus and his teaching.

Children form a creative response to what they know about Jesus, emphasising what they know about his teaching.

Share some facts about Jesus' message of love and kindness
